Picturesque

Vancouver

Vancouver, B.C.

The following views will give one some idea of the wonderful progress Vancouver has made during the last 25 years. Just compare this up to date City with what it was in say 1886, when there were only 600 people then living in Vancouver. The handsome buildings, splendid Streets, beautiful Bathing Beach, and the Wonderful Stanley Park tell of progress unsurpassed anywhere.

PUBLISHED BY THE VALENTINE & SONS UNITED PUBLISHING COY., LIMITED,
MONTREAL - TORONTO - WINNIPEG - VANCOUVER

Court House and Vancouver Hotel

Granville Street

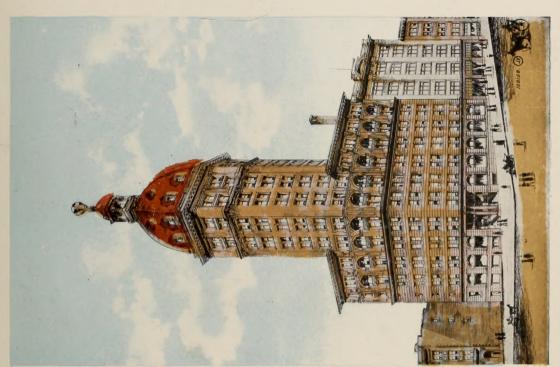

C.P.R. Hotel "Vancouver"

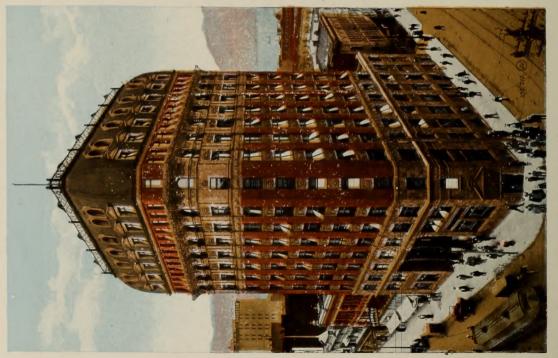

C.P.R. Terminal Station

Vancouver Block. Granville Street

Highest Building in the British Empire; height 272 feet World Building.

Weart Building, Hastings Street

Hastings Street, looking East

Post Office

B.C. Electric Passenger Depot

The "Lions" from Post Office

Siwash Rock, Stanley Park

English Bay, showing Sylvia Court

English Bay

Second Beach: Stanley Park

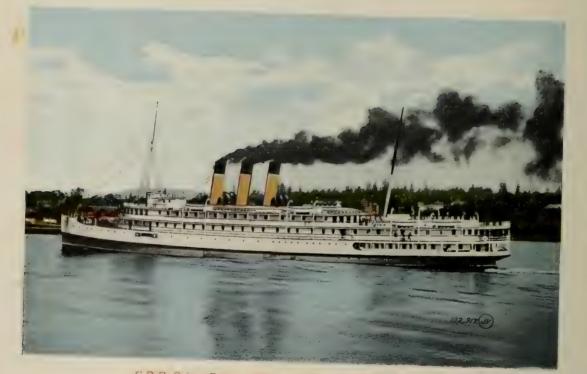

1 Stanley Cadar Trie The

Prospect Point, entrance to the Narrows

CPR S 5 "Pitacess Victoria" Victoria-Vancouver Service

C.P.R. S.S. "Empress of Asia"

Residences on Nelson Street

Harwood Street

Suspension Bridge, 190 feet high. Capilano Canyon

North Vancouver

